Many entertainments were given last night in celebration of St. Valentine's Day—luncheon, dinners, dances and affairs for charity taking place in private homes and the fashionable hotels.

The most picturesque affair of the evening was the Poppy Ball, held at the Plaza Hotel, under the auspices of the American Legion, for the benefit of the children of the liberated regions of France. The ballroom was transformed into an old-fashioned French garden, with hundreds of poppies decorating the room, and in quaint little bowers tables were placed, where the guests entertained parties at supper. Most of those who attended the ball wore poppies on their heads, and the girls were dressed in costumes literally covered with these flowers. They wore wreaths of poppies and carried long staves topped with huge bunches of them.

The dancing did not begin until 10:30 o'clock and this was an informal feature of the early evening. The ball was opened officially half an hour later by the poppy girls, led by Miss Reba Owen, in a grand march. They were followed by garland bearers and then came the queen, Miss Eva Burnside. They formed a circle in the center of the ballroom and inside this a quadrille was danced, the young women taking part being dressed as poppies and the men in Louis XIV costumes. At its conclusion the circle formed by the queen and her attendants moved into a huge old-fashioned bouquet of poppies. Among the poppy girls were Miss Suranne Field, Miss Pauline Bourne, Miss Betty Boutelle, Miss Ethel Noble, Miss Gordon Crawford, Miss Olga Serdobin, Miss Sylvia Donnellan, Miss Maude Burnside, Miss Mary Bruseau, Miss Frances Bogart, Miss Rosemond Ugham, Miss Peggy White, Miss Anna Gorman, Miss Helen Paton, Miss Ruth and Miss Faith Hayden, Miss Katherine Owen and Miss Mary Meade. The garland bearers who immediately preceded the queen were Miss Katherine Geary and Miss Aja Helm. During the evening Delia sang and Russian dancers from the last act of the Russian Ibsa appeared.

Mrs. McAllister Smith is the state chairman of the American and French Children's League and worked hard for the success of the ball. Mrs. John Corbin Peirce is national chairman and on the board of managers are Mrs. James Taylor Terry, Mrs. Roland Hinton Perry, Mrs. W. A. Perry, Mrs. Raymond Havemeyer, Mrs. Fenton B. Turck, Mrs. W. Lanier Washington and many others.

Several dinners were given before the ball, among the hostesses being Mrs. and Mrs. Vernon Howe Bailey. They entertained for St. Valentine's Day, of London, Miss Bori, of the Metropolitan, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will sail for Spain early in March, where Mr. Bailey will pass several months painting medieval subjects.

The committee in charge of the dance included Mrs. James Taylor Terry, Mrs. M. Jean de Mare, Mrs. Raymond Havemeyer and Miss Katherine Turck.

The members of the Coffee Dances for the younger married set, met last night at the Cosmopolitan Club. It was a St. Valentine's party and was a very brilliant and well attended affair. Among the members of the class are Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Conynock, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Delafeld, Mr. and Mrs. Livingston Pell, Mr. and Mrs. Theron R. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howard Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Parish Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Percy M. Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Evans Mahan.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, Mr. and Mrs. Beland Sterry, Mr. and Mrs. William Lawrence Green, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Singer, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman S. Kendall, Mrs. C. L. de Poyster, Mr. and Mrs. William Thaw 3d, Mrs. Robert Graves, Mr. and Mrs. George von L. Myers, Miss Constance Leabody, Miss Mildred Eddy, Gordon Hamersley, Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. B. Freinhuysen, Miss Peggy Thayer, Neal Wainwright and Charles Perrin.

Miss Caroline Ogden Jones, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Paul W. Bartlett, was married to Armistead Peter 3d, yesterday morning in the chantry of the Church of the Transfiguration. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. George C. Roughton, assisted by the bridegroom's uncle, the Rev. Freeman Peter. A small reception and breakfast followed at the home of the bride's mother, 140 West Thirtieth Street.

The bride, whose father was the late Mahlon Ogden Jones, had only one attendant, Mrs. Franklin Ellis, of Washington. Broomley Seely served as Mr. Peter's best man and the ushers were Franklin Ellis, Robert Bell, Richard Holliday and Chester Snow, all of New York.

The bride is a niece of Miss Frances Ogden Jones, of 74 Park Avenue, and of the late Miss Caroline Ogden Jones, for whom she was named.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter, of Mr. and Mrs. Armistead Peter Jr., of Washington.

The Lenten sewing class, formed this season, for the benefit of the tuberculosis and Social Service Committee of the Harlem Hospital, had its first meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. W. De Lancy Kountze, 122 East Seventy-eighth Street. The next meeting will be held February 22 at the home of Mrs. Anson W. Burchard.

The Lenten sewing class of the clothing committee of St. Luke's Hospital Social Service, will have its first meeting this morning at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler, 60 Montague Drive. The class will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Frederic E. Lewis, 23 West Fifty-second Street and on the following Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles D. Nicker, 37 East Fifth Street. Mrs. Lyle Kneeland, 107 East Thirty-eighth Street, Mrs. Howard C. Robbins, The Denary, Amsterdam Avenue and 110th Street, and Mrs. Charles L. Riker, 33 East Thirty-ninth Street.

Mrs. Deas Murphy is chairman of the committee. Mrs. Edward B. Bruch, vice-chairman and the other members include Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler, Mrs. Edward Johnson, Mrs. Robert Ellis Jones, Mrs. Charles Lawrence Riker, Mrs. George Ryer and Mrs. J. Langdon Schroeder.

The first meeting of the Cathedral sewing class will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Stephen C. Clark, 46 East Seventeenth Street. Miss Rachel Jane Hamilton will sing in costume.

Mrs. Vanderbilt will give a dinner to-night at her home, 1 West Fifty-seventh Street.

Most Nearly Perfect Girl
In America Is Married
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 14.—Miss Betsy Buell, adjudged by the Smithsonian Institution in 1918 to be the most nearly perfect American girl, was married in Hartford to-day to Frank R. Valentine, of Jersey City. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buell, of Clinton, Conn.

The distinction given Miss Buell was based upon ancestry and mental and physical qualifications. Her ancestors were among the earliest settlers of New England. Mr. Valentine is an electrical engineer.

Prince Kropotkin Buried

Great Throng of Anarchists Attends Revolutionary's Funeral
COPENHAGEN, Feb. 14.—The funeral of the late Prince Kropotkin, Russian author and revolutionary leader, who died recently at Dmitrov, near Moscow, was attended in Moscow Sunday by a tremendous outpouring of the people, says a dispatch to the Politkov to-day from the Russian capital. The body was brought from Dmitrov to Moscow on a special train, and lay in state at the Trade Union Palace. The burial occurred in the Kropotkin family vault in the Novo Devichy churchyard. Four representatives of the several Russian anarchist groups guarded the coffin.

It is reported, adds the message, that Prince Kropotkin did not regard his illness as serious, and that he urged the doctors and nurses sent by the Soviet authorities when they learned he was ill, not to waste their time on him.
